PETITIONING THE COURT

Violation 1 - Criminal conduct.

On February 28, 2015, Mr. Cotton operated a motor vehicle on the highways of the state of North Carolina while under the influence of an impairing substance. He was charged with Driving While Impaired and Improper Backing (15CR52502) by Trooper Everett of the North Carolina Highway Patrol. These charges were scheduled for trial in state court on August 26, 2015, at which time the defendant failed to appear.

In view thereof, we respectfully petition the court for the issuance of a summons and recommend that the term of supervision be revoked

This the 28th day of August, 2015.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
